

I do not want you to change the no call list to let more people invade my privacy. As far as I'm concerned you should also take off the non-profits. Some of those sound very doubtful to me. Let these people go through the mail and pay the same rate we do for letters and maybe they'd find better ways to market their products. Thank you.